#dont get it twisted #idiom #meaning #explanation #misunderstanding

The idiom "Don't Get It Twisted" is a common phrase used to clarify a statement and prevent misinterpretations. It essentially means "Don't misunderstand me" or "Don't get the wrong idea." It's often used to preemptively correct potential assumptions about one's words, actions, or intentions. Think of it as a friendly warning to ensure clear communication and avoid any confusion that might arise from a statement.
