

Women And The Contested State Religion Violence And Agency In South And Southeast Asia Kroc Ins

#Women #Religion #Violence #Southeast Asia #Agency

Explore the complex intersections of women, religion, and the state in South and Southeast Asia. This study investigates how women navigate contested religious landscapes, examining the role of violence and the exercise of agency within these contexts, particularly focusing on the Kroc Institute's research on conflict resolution and peacebuilding in religiously diverse societies.
