

The State Of Feminist Social Work

#feminist social work #feminist theory #social justice #gender equality #social work practice

Feminist social work critically examines societal structures and power dynamics that oppress marginalized groups, particularly women. It aims to empower individuals and communities through advocacy, policy change, and direct practice that challenges patriarchal norms. This approach integrates feminist theory into social work ethics and methods, promoting social justice and gender equality across various domains of social work interventions.
